ASSOCIATION'S NEW CHARTER

Based On Stock of $200 With Guthrie as Headquarters.

ELECTIONS HELD TODAY.

Messrs. Garner, Davis and Forgy Are the Incorporators Named.

As a matter of information to those who have never seen the charter of the Planters Protective Association, we publish the document adopted in May last. Under this charter the election of precinct chairmen will be held all over the district at 1 o'clock this afternoon, at the voting places. The charter is here given:

Know all men by these present: That J. E. Garner, Jr., S. F. Davis and S. Walton Forgy have this day and do hereby associate themselves for the purpose of establishing and creating a corporation as provided in Chapter 32 of the Kentucky Statutes, which corporation shall have the right to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued and to own property in its own name.

The name of said corporation shall be The Planters' Protective Association of Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia. The principal place of business of said corporation shall be located in the city or town of Guthrie, Todd county, Kentucky. The nature of the business and the object and purposes proposed to be transacted, promoted and carried on by the corporation shall be to buy, own and sell tobacco of all kinds and to act as agent in receiving, storing, insuring, handling, selling and re-selling, and otherwise dealing in tobacco on commission or otherwise; and said corporation shall have the power to purchase, lease, rent and otherwise acquire all such real estate, machinery and other personal property or real estate necessary for the purpose of carrying out the object of said corporation, and to conduct its business successfully, and to own, sell or dispose of said property and to make such contracts in relation thereto as may be necessary to conduct and carry on the business aforesaid. The amount of said corporation's capital stock shall be $200, and shall be divided into two hundred shares of the par value of $1 each. The names and places of residence of the stockholders and the incorporators hereof are as follows:

J. E. Garner, Jr., whose place of residence is Springfield, Tenn., and who is the owner of three shares of stock; S. F. Davis, whose place of residence is Elkton, Ky., and who is the owner of three shares of stock; S. Walton Forgy, whose place of residence is Elkton, Ky., and who is the owner of three shares of stock.

Said corporation is to commence business immediately after being authorized or permitted to do so by the laws of the State of Kentucky, and shall continue for a period of twenty-five years, unless dissolved prior thereto in the manner prescribed by law. The affairs of said corporation shall be conducted by a board of directors, who shall be annually elected by the stockholders of said corporation; said board of directors shall consist of forty two members. Said board of directors shall have the right to elect a president, secretary and treasurer, general manager, and said secretary and treasurer may consist of two persons or one person, and such other officers as the board of directors may from time to time deem necessary to properly carry on and conduct the business of said corporation. Said board of directors shall have the right to define, prescribe or limit the power and authority of the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and such other officers and employees as they may employ or select. Said board of directors shall be elected on

WM. J. BRYAN HAS COME HOME FROM ABROAD.

Greatest Crowd Ever Seen in New York Welcomed Him.

SPOKE FOR ONE HOUR.

So Touched Was the Great Statesman That He Stood With His Eyes Filled With Tears of Love and Delight.

NEW YORK, AUG. 31.—The reception to William J. Bryan in Madison Square Garden, New York, last night was such as has been rarely, if ever, accorded to a private citizen in the history of the United States. The garden was packed with 20,000 people, and the streets and avenues outside were choked for blocks with other thousands who had gathered to see and honor the distinguished Nebraskan.

Mr. Bryan upon his entry to the hall was cheered for eight minutes, as possibly no other American ever was in the history of the United States. His address was preceded by speeches by Gov. Folk, of Missouri; Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, and Hon. Augustus Thomas, of New York. Mr. Bryan's speech was more than one hour in duration, and touched largely on political issues.

So touched was Mr. Bryan, by the welcome, that he stood waiting for the cheers to subside with his eyes filled with tears of delight, and he strode nervously from side to side of the narrow platform.

the fourth Saturday of September of each and every year, and shall continue in office for one year or until their successors shall be elected and become qualified and accept said office. The Board of Directors shall elect the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, which latter two officers may be held by one, a general manager and such other officers and employees as they may deem necessary to carry on the business of the Association; and said president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and general manager and other employees may or may not be a director or stockholder of said corporation. The president, vice president, secretary, treasurer and general manager shall be elected by said Board of Directors on the first Monday in October of each and every year, and shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified, unless they shall be removed by said Board of Directors and said Board of Directors shall have the right to remove said officer or any of them at any time they may so desire. The highest amount of indebtedness or liability which the said corporation may at any time incur shall not exceed $5,000. The private property of the stockholders of said corporation shall not be subjected to the payment of the corporate debts of said corporation at any time to any extent whatever.

From this date until the fourth Saturday in September, 1906, said corporation shall be controlled by the incorporators and such others as become stockholders therein, and the following persons shall be, and they are now elected, for the following offices, viz.: For the office of president, Charles H. Fort; for the office of vice president, E. T. Bondurant; for the office of secretary, N. E. Green, and for the office of treasurer, George Snadon; general manager, F. G. Ewing.

The Board of Directors shall have the power from time to time to adopt such laws as they may deem best or advisable for the conduct of the business of said corporation, which by-laws shall be binding upon the officers of said corporation, and until the fourth Saturday in September, 1906, the general manager of said corporation shall have full power and control of the business of the said corporation and the right to employ such employees and servants as he may deem necessary to properly conduct the business of said Association, to fix their compensation and to discharge the same at his will. The stockholders of this corporation may at any time prior to the fourth Saturday in September, 1906, remove any officer or employee of said Association and select other persons to fill the place of the one so removed.

In witness whereof, the aforesaid incorporators have hereunto affixed their signatures, this the eighth day of May, 1906.

(Signed) J. E. GARNER, Jr.,
S. F. DAVIS,
S. WALTON FORGY.

CLARK-GREEN.

Young People of Near Gracey Married in Nashville.

Mr. Albert Clark, son of Esq. H. B. Clark, of Gracey, and brother of Messrs. C. R. and Geo. Clark, of this city, and Miss Elizabeth Green, daughter of Mr. Jno. R. Green, who resides six miles west of the city, were married in Nashville Thursday. They were accompanied by Miss Lucy Green, a sister of the bride, and Denzel McGehee, nephew of the groom, the latter having joined the party at Springfield, Tenn., where he is employed by the L. & N. as operator.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark visited friends in Elkton yesterday and returned here today. The affair was not in any sense an elopement, the young people preferring a little trip to a home wedding.

The bride is exceedingly popular and possesses numerous accomplishments.

The groom is a well known and prosperous young farmer, with a host of friends.

AT SANITARIUM

Is Wife of Rev. W. A. Cleveland, of Georgia.

Mrs. W. A. Cleveland, wife of a Presbyterian minister of Cartersville, Ga., is a patient at the Hopkinsville Sanitarium this week. She was Miss Lee Sybert, a daughter of Mrs. Pattie Sybert, of this county. Mr. Cleveland will preach at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church tomorrow morning.

Wyoming Republicans.

Wyoming Republicans have nominated a State ticket headed by Bryant B. Brooks for Governor.

IMPORTANT.

Tobacco Growers to Elect
Precinct Chairmen
Today.

Between the hours of 1:00 and 3:00 p. m. today the members of the Dark Tobacco Association will elect chairmen of each precinct in the county. Next Monday morning, Sept. 3, the newly elected precinct chairmen will meet in this city and elect a county chairman. Every chairman can see the absolute necessity of his being here on that day. It is County Court day and many of them may have business that will call them from home, and those who have not should leave the farm and be here, as their interest demands it.

Mr. W. W. Radford, the present county chairman, says that every member of the Association, as well as the precinct chairmen, should not fail to be present. Business of the utmost importance is to be considered, and every member of the Association should prove his faithfulness by stopping farm operations and coming to town on that day.

COMMITTEE NAMED

To Solicit Funds For Bethel Female College.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by Bethel Association, Moderator W. H. Harrison has appointed three members of a committee to solicit an endowment and improvement fund for Bethel Female College from the Baptists of the association. Two other members have been named by the Alumnae Association. The committee as named is as follows: Chas. M. Meacham, Jas. H. Anderson, Rev. W. E. Mitchell, Mrs. R. L. Woodard, Mrs. T. C. Underwood.
